Administrative History

The Ingalls Stone Company was founded in Oneonta, New York in 1887 by Charles Cleveland Ingalls. It was moved to Binghamton, New York in 1899, and then to Bedford, Indiana in 1910. It operated stone quarries and mills in Lawrence, Owen, and Monroe counties in Indiana, and manufactured armaments during World War II through the Ingalls Steel Division. The company was liquidated in 1976, and underwent dissolution in 1982.
